Statement by the receiver

N° 2 : Date for filing of claims

The court's decision dated November 5, 2014 fixed the date for filing of claims on November 24, 2014.

This date is not a foreclosure date and the receiver will accept claims received thereafter. Based on information currently at his disposal, the receivers ask creditors to file their claims until March 31, 2015.

The receiver will provide a standardized form for filing claims on this website, which creditors are kindly requested to use. The form will include further details and general information on documents to be provided.

Creditors are kindly requested to use only the form that will be published for the filing of their claims.
