Receiver's announcement n°13

Information regarding the statements of claim

The bankruptcy receiver would like to remind that her primary means of communication will be via the present website. She will not be able to answer all individual requests for information.

The administrative review of the statements of claim is ongoing and creditors are individually contacted if any documents are incomplete. The bankruptcy receiver also informs that she will not be able to answer individual questions regarding the filed documents. After reception of any new documents, the response deadline is automatically suspended and the concerned statements of claim are submitted to an additional administrative review.

Any correspondence regarding a statement of claim is to be addressed via email to insolvency@vdblax.com indicating the statement of claim number, if known by the claimant.

During the administrative review, the bankruptcy receiver notes that a number of claims were submitted with no address, an invalid address or the address of the Luxembourg court. Please note that the receiver will not be able to contact these creditors. Any concerned creditors shall send a copy of their statement of claim – preferably by email to insolvency@vdblax.com – mentioning an email address and an updated (elected) address (for example with a lawyer domiciled in Luxembourg) for the service of process.
