Receiver's announcement n°5

Review and acceptance of statement of claims

A first administrative review of the statement of claims received indicates that an important number of claims was not completed with all the necessary supporting documents for a possible acceptance of the claim.

The receiver kindly reminds the creditors to follow the established process (link) to fill in their statement of claims. The information requested, on the form and in the process, is compulsory.

Creditors are kindly requested to review if they submitted all the below supporting documents with their statement of claims. As the case may be, they are invited to resend only the documents which have not yet been transmitted, together with a copy of the first page of their originally submitted statement.

Espirito Santo Financial Group SA in bankruptcy
C/O Vandenbulke – Me Laurence Jacques
35 Avenue Monterey
L-2163 Luxembourg

As indicated in the Receiver's letter to creditors n°1, due to the number of statements of claims and the tedious work it represents, the receiver will not be able to answer individual requests regarding the documents provided, the statement of claims or other questions concerning the bankruptcy.

The receiver further reminds that all the above documents are absolutely necessary for any acceptance of claim.

At a later stage of her review, the receiver will take position on each individual claim. The claims will be presented to the Court ("audience de verification des créances"). The creditors, for who the claim is contested, will be notified by email or if not, by mail.
