Receivers' announcement

N° 2 : Date for filing of claims

The court's decision dated October 27, 2014 fixed the date for filing of claims on November 14, 2014.

This date is not a foreclosure date and the receivers will accept claims received thereafter. Based on information currently at their disposal, the receivers ask creditors to file their claims until March 31, 2015.

On this website, the receivers will provide a standardized form for filing claims. The form will include further details and general information on documents to be provided.

Awaiting this information and in order to proceed in an ordinary manner, creditors are kindly requested to not proceed with sending their claims at this time.

Creditors are kindly requested to use only the form that will be published for the filing of their claims.
